

Seminar Reminder System

Overview for Mark Patrick Seminars · Prepared by Michelle Mendez, ValuedHR

How It Works

Every registrant across every seminar receives a consistent, three-touch reminder sequence in the days leading up to their event. The process runs in two parts: automatic monitoring, and a manual send step that keeps every message going out through the existing registration portal — no third-party paid texting service, no added cost.

- New seminars are detected automatically. Each morning, the system checks for any newly posted seminar dates and adds them to a tracking list — nothing has to be entered by hand.
- Every seminar is watched for three reminder windows: 48 hours before, 24 hours before, and the morning of the event.
- When a reminder comes due, Michelle is alerted instantly with the exact message text ready to go and a direct link to that seminar's page in the portal.
- Messages are sent manually through the portal, exactly as they are today — the system only removes the guesswork of tracking which seminar needs which message and when.
- Coverage is nationwide. The system checks Eastern and Central seminars each morning at 8:30 AM local time, and Mountain/Pacific seminars at 12:30 PM Eastern (mid-morning their time), so no seminar is ever missed regardless of time zone.

Reminder Schedule

Touchpoint	Sent	Purpose
48-Hour Reminder	2 days before the seminar	Confirm attendance and build early engagement
24-Hour Reminder	1 day before the seminar	Build anticipation and readiness
Morning-Of Reminder	The day of the seminar	Final confirmation and encouragement

Check times are when the system looks for what's due that day — the actual send happens shortly after, once Michelle sends via the portal.

Message Content

Each reminder is personalized with the registrant's first name, seminar topic, date, and time. Below is the exact wording used for each touchpoint.

48-Hour Reminder

Sent 2 days before — Weight Loss and Stop Smoking

Hi [First Name], this is Michelle with Mark Patrick Seminars — I'm your Post Seminar Advocate, here to support you before, during, and after your seminar and to answer any questions along the way. Your [Topic] seminar is in 2 days, on [Date] at [Time]. I'd love to know: what's your biggest motivator for wanting to [quit smoking / lose weight]? Reply and let me know — I read every message! Reply STOP to opt out.

24-Hour Reminder

Sent 1 day before — Weight Loss and Stop Smoking

Hi [First Name], it's Michelle! Getting excited for tomorrow's [Topic] seminar at [Time]? Quick fact: hypnosis works by speaking directly to your subconscious mind — the part that drives habits and cravings — which is why it can succeed where willpower alone falls short. Curious how ready your mind is? Take our quick hypnosis test: [Link] Did you pass? Reply STOP to opt out.

Morning-Of Reminder

Sent the day of the seminar — Weight Loss and Stop Smoking

Hi [First Name], it's Michelle — today's the day! Your Mark Patrick [Topic] seminar starts at [Time]. You got this! Today starts a new chapter in your life! Looking forward to seeing you! PS. It really works! Reply STOP to opt out.

Why This Matters

- No reminder window is ever missed, even across a growing multi-state seminar schedule.
- Every registrant gets the same warm, consistent, personal tone regardless of which seminar or topic they signed up for.
- Runs entirely on infrastructure already in place — no added software cost.
- Built to scale nationwide, with full coverage across all four continental time zones.
